

Dave Ruch – Performer and Teaching Artist

155 St James Place * Buffalo NY 14222 * (716) 884-6855 * www.daveruch.com * dave@daveruch.com

PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dave Ruch (www.daveruch.com) will give a free concert entitled “Songs of the North Country” on (date) at (venue name and address) at (time).

Ruch is a special musician who sings and plays music for all ages on an intriguing assortment of instruments including banjo, guitar, jaw harp, bones, spoons and more. His concerts are characterized by a warm rapport with the audience, excellent musicianship, enlightening historical tidbits and just the right amount of humor.

This all-ages concert takes the audience on a musical trip around the North Country to sample (and sing along with!) some traditional folk music from Adirondack lumber camps, Tug Hill fiddlers, St Lawrence Valley farms, Champlain Valley battlefields and more. Ruch says “not only is this great music that we don’t hear much anymore, but the songs tell us so much about what life was like back then.”

A professional musician and educator based in Buffalo NY, Dave Ruch gives hundreds of concerts and workshops each year for schools, libraries, music festivals, historical societies, museums and community events both at home and abroad.
